

II.

Plaintiffs need additional time to respond to Unum's numerous assertions by additional research of thousands of pages of administrative record (Unum produced different files to Plaintiffs before and after this litigation was filed). Moreover, the parties have agreed to mediate this dispute on April 5, 2007. Plaintiffs request the Court to grant them until April 15, 2007, 10 days after mediation, to file their response. (These cross-motions for summary judgment should resolve this litigation if mediation does not).

III. CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

Plaintiffs' counsel, Darby Riley conferred with Amanda Sotak, counsel for Unum, who advised that they did not object to this extension.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiffs, Eric C. Sanders and Carrie L. Sanders, pray that the Court grant this Motion and extend their response time to April 1, 2007; and for such other and further relief to which Plaintiffs may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Defendants.

Came on to be heard Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Defendant Unum's Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment. After considering the Motion and arguments of counsel, the Court is of the opinion that it should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that Plaintiffs, Eric C. Sanders and Carrie L. Sanders are granted an extension until April 15, 2007 to file their response to Defendant Unum's Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment.
